Description

As an ABS graduate intern, you'll be placed in a specific department based on your interests and qualifications. You'll contribute to real-world projects across diverse areas, including:

- Classification: Evaluate vessel designs and construction against international standards, ensuring safety and performance.
- Surveying: Assist in shipboard inspections, verifying compliance with regulations and providing technical guidance.
- Engineering: Support the development and application of cutting-edge marine technologies, including renewable energy solutions.
- Research & Development: Conduct data analysis, participate in research projects, and contribute to future-proofing the maritime industry.
- Regulatory Affairs: Analyze maritime regulations, advocate for safety standards, and stay abreast of industry developments.
- Business Development: Explore new markets, support client engagement initiatives, and contribute to ABS's global reach.

Responsibilities

- Assist with assigned projects under the mentorship of experienced professionals.
- Conduct research, analyze data, and prepare reports relevant to your internship area.
- Participate in meetings, workshops, and potential field visits.
- Contribute to maintaining a professional and collaborative work environment.
- Specific tasks will vary depending on the chosen department and program focus.

Qualifications

- Currently enrolled in a graduate program in engineering, naval architecture, marine science, business administration, or a related field.
- Minimum GPA of 3.0 required.
- Strong interest in the maritime industry and commitment to safety.
- Excellent communication, analytical, and problem-solving skills.
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team.
- Proficient in Microsoft Office Suite, with additional software skills preferred depending on the program.
- U.S. citizenship or valid work authorization required.

Experience

- Prior internship or relevant work experience preferred, but not required.
- Experience in your field of study or a related field is a plus.
