- Draft correspondence, reports, and presentations.
- Participate in outreach and engagement activities with Tribal governments.
- Attend professional development workshops and conferences (optional).

Qualifications

- Currently enrolled in an accredited undergraduate or graduate program.
- Minimum GPA of 3.0 (on a 4.0 scale) preferred.
- Demonstrated interest in American Indian and Alaska Native affairs, tribal sovereignty, or related fields.
- Strong research, writing, and communication skills.
- Proficient in Microsoft Office Suite.
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team.
- Respectful and culturally sensitive approach to working with Tribal communities.

Experience

- Prior internship or volunteer experience in government agencies or Tribal organizations is a plus.

Skills

- Analytical and problem-solving skills.
- Attention to detail and strong organizational skills.
- Ability to learn new concepts quickly and adapt to a fast-paced environment.
- Time management and prioritization skills.
- Strong interpersonal and communication skills.
- Initiative and willingness to take on new challenges.

Job Benefits

- Gain valuable experience working within the federal government on Tribal affairs.
