Description

The Idaho Department of Labor is thrilled to announce the Internship Opportunities Program for 2024. We are seeking dynamic and motivated individuals to join our team and gain hands-on experience in various facets of workforce development. As an intern, you will have the opportunity to contribute to meaningful projects, learn from experienced professionals, and make a positive impact on the labor landscape in Idaho.

Responsibilities

- Assist with research and analysis of labor market trends and economic data.
- Support the development and implementation of workforce development programs.
- Collaborate with department staff on outreach and communication initiatives.
- Contribute to the planning and execution of career fairs and educational workshops.
- Engage in data entry, tracking, and reporting related to employment programs.

Qualifications

- Current student pursuing a degree in business, economics, human resources, or a related field.
- Strong academic performance and a genuine interest in workforce development.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
- Detail-oriented with strong organizational and time-management abilities.
- Ability to work independently and collaboratively in a team environment.

Experience

- Previous internship or coursework related to workforce development is advantageous but not required.
- Familiarity with data analysis tools or statistical software is a plus.

Skills

- Proficiency in Microsoft Office applications, particularly Excel and PowerPoint.
- Analytical mindset with the ability to interpret and present data effectively.
- Strong written and verbal communication skills.
- Adaptability and a willingness to learn and contribute to the team.

Job Benefits

- Competitive stipend for the duration of the internship.
