State Of Connecticut Internship Graduate Opportunities 2025

Description

The State of Connecticut is offering exciting internship opportunities for graduate students in 2025. This program provides hands-on experience in various state departments, allowing interns to apply their academic knowledge to real-world government operations. Participants will gain insight into public service careers, develop professional skills, and contribute to meaningful projects that impact Connecticut communities.

Responsibilities

- Assist in research, policy analysis, and project development across different state agencies.
- Support government officials with administrative tasks, data management, and report writing.
- Participate in team meetings, stakeholder engagements, and interdepartmental collaborations.
- Conduct case studies, evaluate public programs, and recommend improvements.
- Prepare presentations, draft documents, and contribute to legislative or policy initiatives.
- Perform other duties as assigned to enhance professional growth and contribute to departmental goals.

Qualifications

- Must be currently enrolled in a graduate program at an accredited college or university.
- Majors in Public Administration, Political Science, Law, Business, Social Sciences, Environmental Science, Healthcare, or related fields are preferred.
- Strong academic record with a demonstrated interest in public service and government affairs.

Experience

- Prior internship or work experience in public administration, policy analysis, research, or a related field is a plus.
- Experience with data analysis, report writing, or project management is beneficial but not required.

Skills

- Excellent written and verbal communication skills.
- Strong analytical and problem-solving abilities.
- Ability to work independently and collaboratively in a professional environment.
