USCIS Internship Students Opportunities 2026

Description

The United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) is pleased to announce Internship Opportunities for Students in 2026. We are seeking driven and dedicated individuals to join our team and gain practical experience in the field of immigration services. As an intern with USCIS, you will have the opportunity to contribute to important initiatives, work with seasoned professionals, and play a vital role in supporting our nation's immigration processes.

Responsibilities

- Assist in the processing and administration of immigration applications and petitions.
- Conduct research and analysis on immigration policies, regulations, and procedures.
- Support outreach and education initiatives aimed at informing the public about immigration services.
- Collaborate with USCIS staff on various projects related to immigration and citizenship.
- Participate in training sessions and workshops to enhance knowledge of immigration processes.

Qualifications

- Currently enrolled as an undergraduate or graduate student pursuing a degree in political science, law, international relations, or a related field.
- Strong academic performance and a genuine interest in immigration services.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
- Detail-oriented with strong organizational and time-management abilities.
- Eligibility to work in the United States.

Experience

- Previous coursework or experience related to immigration law or policy is advantageous but not mandatory.
- Familiarity with legal research or government processes is a plus.

Skills

- Proficiency in Microsoft Office applications, including Word, Excel, and PowerPoint.
- Strong analytical and problem-solving skills.
- Adaptability and a willingness to learn and contribute to a collaborative team environment.
- Effective communication and presentation skills.
