- Contribute to the development and implementation of initiatives to enhance mail security.
- Collaborate with USPIS teams on special projects related to mail fraud, cybercrime, and other postal-related offenses.
- Participate in training sessions to enhance your understanding of postal law enforcement practices.

Qualifications

- Currently enrolled in a bachelor's or master's degree program in criminal justice, law enforcement, or a related field.
- U.S. citizenship is required.
- Strong academic record and a passion for law enforcement and postal security.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
- Ability to maintain confidentiality and handle sensitive information with discretion.

Experience

- Prior internship or relevant coursework related to criminal justice is preferred but not required.
- Demonstrated commitment to a career in law enforcement or public service.

Skills

- Analytical and critical thinking skills.
- Strong attention to detail and organizational abilities.
- Effective communication and teamwork skills.
- Proficiency in Microsoft Office suite.
- Adaptability to a fast-paced and dynamic work environment.
